Pastoral Illumination

This marks the beginning of the last quarter of the year. It seems that each year at this time we find ourselves talking about how fast the year has past. We are almost astonished that here we are about to wrap up another 12 months—that in less than 90 or so days, we will be at the threshold of another year. Surely above everything else, we ought to be reminded of Ephesians 5:16, where Paul talks about “Redeeming the time.” It’s another way of saying “make the best of each and every opportunity.” And I challenge SouthCentral to do just that from now until the end of the year. Make the best of every opportunity—and don’t be ashamed to do it!

Make the best of every opportunity to increase your attendance. Chances are you know that you should be more faithful than you are. It’s not the first time we’ve discussed it, nor the first time you’ve considered it. You just haven’t moved on it—and now it’s past time.

Make the best of every opportunity to be involved in ministry. There is something for everyone do in the kingdom of God. Some programs or ministries are silent, that is, they don’t stand out obviously. Others are very visible and even vocal. Some require almost daily attention and others may be active once a month . The main thing is discovering your gifts and cultivating the talents God has already blessed you with!

Make the best of every opportunity to show your love to God by giving. The church doesn’t operate on good intentions and well-wishes. We must depend upon the depth of members hearts and devotion to God. God not only loves cheerful givers, He blessed them beyond measure!

Make the best of every opportunity to share Christ’s love with your friends and family. One of the things that continues to make SouthCentral the place it is, is the constant influx of new faces. You would be surprised at the power of one invitation! Don’t underestimate it! Invite your friends. Bring them with you to Bible classes, where there is much action and interaction. Watch what God will do!

If more members of SouthCentral would commit themselves in these four areas, it would have a major impact on our congregation and our community. I am always available and willing to talk and pray with you on these matters and any more that may be affecting your walk with the Master.
